The Third World War: The Untold Story John Hackett

General Sir John Hackett first astounded readers with his international bestseller The Third World War: August 1985. A dramatic account of a highly probable future global conflict., it was hailed as the most brilliant, up-to-date "investigation" of its kind yet written. Until now. Now, newly declassified information provides fresh perspectives on the chilling capabilities of state-of-the-art weaponry. Only now, aided by invaluable insights from a top Soviet insider, can the Russian threat be fully weighed. Only now, with stunning power and sobering realism, can an accurate, detailed battle plan be charted to assess how our next world war will be fought. And won. Only now could The Third World War: The Untold Story be written.
