Annihilation zones Récits d'atrocités commises en Asie au XXème siècle (Camion Noir) (French Edition) Stephen Barber

L'histoire politique, militaire et sociale du XXe siècle a été marquée par le spectre de la mort rouge. Rouge comme l'étendard d'Hirohito, dieu-empereur du Japon dont les troupes ivres de viols et de chair humaine dévastèrent la Chine et une partie de l'Asie du Sud-est ; rouge comme la faucille et le marteau de Staline, l'un des plus grands génocidaires de ce siècle ; et rouge comme les rizières inondées du sang des victimes des purges de Pol Pot. Annihilation Zones est un document unique, plongée vertigineuse dans l'enfer des goulags de Magadan ; dans les salles de vivisection de l'Unité 731, l'Auschwitz japonais ; et au cœur de Tuol Sleng, le camp de la mort des Khmers rouges. Richement illustré de photographies d'époque inédites, cet ouvrage culte de Stephen Barber explore sans pudeur ces atrocités commises au nom d'idéologies qui ont coûté la vie à des millions d'êtres humains, victimes expiatoires de trois despotes implacables qui ont gravé à jamais de leur fer rouge le continent asiatique.
