Poesias: Língua Delirante (Portuguese Edition) Carlos Rogério Cerqueira Junior

O amor é uma das manifestações mais genuinamente humanas: é sentimento (na figura da sensação provocada pelo ser amado) como também pensamento (resultante da compreensão do indivíduo acerca de seu próprio estado amoroso). O amor, inicialmente único, paradoxal, completo, hermético e sem qualquer importância para os outros, por meio da poesia, expõe seus contornos mais belos (e, por que não, trágicos?) permitindo aos leitores experimentarem a identificação com o escritor: desse modo, a poesia se transforma numa genuína ponte de comunicação entre os seres humanos. Nesse livro, explora-se o liminar entre o êxtase de amar e a dor do amor não concretizado. Afinal, a poesia é exteriorização de um desejo, sua realização sublimada: as palavras impronunciáveis que se remodelam na forma de arte. A obra é composta por 60 poemas escritos entre 2010 e 2012, que versam sobre o amor e seus desdobramentos mais imediatos como solidão, dor, felicidade e arrebatamento. Em diversas ocasiões, remete-se à mitologia grega, estabelecendo paralelos e releituras entre deuses e o ser amante, divinamente amaldiçoado. Referências diversas, de óperas a esculturas, permitem estabelecer diálogos com outras manifestações artísticas. E, não menos importante, trabalha-se com as múltiplas interpretações que podem surgir do uso da língua para racionalizar o sentimento amoroso. Dessa forma, essa coletânea de poesias procura explorar a universalidade do amor, permitindo que o leitor possa reconhecer nos versos, o reflexo da sua própria concepção e experiência amorosa.
