Missing my dog, My best friend: Ginger: The emotions felt after: Death of a dog Bobby R Simonds

Losing a best friend is a terrible loss, but when it is your dog...it can feel so much worse. Words cannot even express the emptiness left within your heart. You feel as though that life cannot move on without them. If you had the experience of having a great dog in your life – a strong connection with an animal – and then having to experience the hardship of the loss after death, this may be a great read for you. My heart goes out to everyone who has shared my experience, and my wife's too. As losing your best friend, can be like losing part of your heart, and your routine with your dog, no longer is required, and it leaves you with an empty void.
