I nemici di Mussolini (Le Navi) (Italian Edition) Charles F. Delzell

Questa storia dell'antifascismo italiano, dal delitto Matteotti fino alla proclamazione della Repubblica, è il frutto di una lunga e approfondita ricerca e, nello stesso tempo, della diretta esperienza del suo autore. Charles Delzell prestò infatti servizio nell'Esercito americano in Italia dal 1943 al 1945 e negli anni successivi vi tornò a più riprese, entrando in contatto con molti leader della Resistenza e intraprendendo un fitto scambio con gli studiosi italiani. In questo volume, Delzell delinea le ragioni, i percorsi e le prospettive degli uomini e dei movimenti politici che hanno dato vita alla Resistenza armata - la fase culminante di una lunga lotta protrattasi in Italia e all'estero per oltre un ventennio - partendo dal brutale assassinio del segretario socialista, che spostò lo scontro con il regime fuori dalle aule della democrazia parlamentare, e affrontando poi gli aspetti salienti del movimento antifascista: l'emigrazione all'estero, l'attività clandestina in Italia e la partecipazione alla Guerra Civile Spagnola, una sorta di prova generale della Resistenza armata iniziata l'8 settembre 1943. Dalla ricostruzione di Delzell, emergono le scelte dei partigiani, l'eroismo e il sacrificio degli anonimi, la tenacia della propaganda clandestina, i conflitti politici interni e lo sforzo collettivo: un'immagine complessa e obiettiva degli uomini e delle idee che hanno cambiato radicalmente la Storia del nostro Paese.
