The Hellcopters Du kérosène dans les veines (French Edition) Rudy Charis

Monté en 1994 comme un projet parallèle par Nick Andersson avec ses trois roadies sur les tournées d'Entombed, The Hellcopters furent pendant 14 ans les fers de lance d'un rock à forte intensité, le High Energy Rock'n'Roll, induisant un engouement pour ce style suivi par la renaissance, au début du millénaire, de modèles du genre tels le MC5, The Stooges ou Radio Birdman. De leurs débuts garage tonitrueux récompensés d'un Grammy Award inattendu jusqu'à leur dernier album composé de reprises de groupes de la même trempe, les hélicoptères de l'enfer ont symbolisé cette haute-fidélité envers la musique (envers la leur et celle des autres donc) chère aux amateurs de vinyles, sans jamais se renier pour une valise de billets. Qui d'autre que Nick Andersson, qui par ailleurs créera avec The Solution l'un des premiers groupes de white soul deux ans avant le succès de Amy Winehouse & co., peut se targuer d'être un musicien précurseur et respecté de ses pairs dans des styles aussi différents que le Death Metal (Entombed) le Rock au sens large (The Hellcopters) ou la Soul (The Solution)? De leurs premiers pas dans la musique jusqu'à leurs derniers projets en 2015, cet ouvrage retrace le parcours des membres du groupe, avec leur participation directe ainsi que celles de nombreux autres artistes ayant été survolés par les Suédois, qui ont mené leur carrière comme personne d'autre – Like no other men.
