Being bad for a thug never lasted so good... Blaze never would have ever imagined in his twenty-six years of life, that the woman of his dreams would be dragged right into his dangerous, gangster lifestyle. The love of his life, Anika Scott is missing, and Blaze is out for blood. He won't stop at anything until all those who have wronged him and his brothers, pay. Even if that means tearing up the streets of Atlanta to get his woman safe and sound back with him, by his side - then so be it. Revenge is the only option in Blaze's mind to get everything back to the way it was before. He's desperate for his trap queen to be back where she belongs. And knowing that she's pregnant is only driving Blaze crazier and crazier by the minute. Blaze knows that Leek Carter is behind all the trouble that has happened to The Knight Nation and now knows that Jamal Coleman is his new partner. His only goal is to make them pay severely and remind them exactly why he's not the one to mess with. On top of Anika missing, Kareem's life hangs in a deadly balance, Marquise's personal problems keep piling on, and unexpected appearances result in unexpected reactions. In the finale to Bad For My Thug, Blaze must conquer his enemies, battle his inner demons and stay true to his love, Anika. Will he be able to succeed in destroying those who have wronged him or will the temptations of Anika being away from him get the best of him?
