Creer o no creer: Hacia una sociedad laica (Spanish Edition) Enrique Miret Magdalena

«Sin duda la sociedad está cambiando a pasos agigantados, pues temas hasta ayer tabú están en la mente de todos y en las nuevas costumbres que se concretan en nuevas leyes ayer impensables, pero necesarias para abarcar costumbres ayer ocultas y hasta prohibidas, como el divorcio, la homosexualidad o el aborto. Y muchos nos damos cuenta de que el mundo no está tan apartado de sus problemas, pues está compuesto de una red de influencias, unas para bien y otras para mal: es lo que se llama globalización, que frecuentemente sólo sirve para ventaja de los poderosos olvidando a los más débiles, que son la mayoría de esos alejados países llamados Tercer Mundo. Y, por si fuera poco, surge en nuestros países desarrollados el Cuarto Mundo de los desplazados de las ventajas de ese desarrollo. La economía, la política y la sociedad han cambiado, pero no acertamos con el rumbo adecuado para vivir todos mejor. Tampoco acierta la religión, lo mismo en Occidente que en Oriente. Y nosabemos si está desapareciendo el cristianismo en Europa o quiere surgir un nuevo y mejor cristianismo inspirado en la sencillez del primitivo que enseñó Jesús en los Evangelios».
