Everyday Prayers for Children Mark Kimball Moulton

For ages 9-12. In December 1823, the poem now known as 'The Night Before Christmas' was first published anonymously and has since become the best loved Christmas poem of all time. Now, for the first time in The Visit, Dinghy Sharp, a direct descendant of recognised author Clement Clarke Moore, shares her delightful story with us all, and reveals the history and origin of this beloved poem as it has been passed down for generations in the Moore family.
