In this first book of The Guardian Angel series the story's narrator, Pelagius the angel, introduces us to life in 1364 A.D. and to Brin, a teenage gypsy who is despised by his people because his mother died of the plague and his father was a follower of God.

This powerless teen's future seems hopeless until a hooded stranger presents him with a challenge and also a warning to beware of "the enemy." Thrown into a dangerous adventure, Brin must choose good over evil in order to find his earthly father's love and his heavenly Father's will. This story will captivate readers ages 9–12 as they join Brin on his path to discovering what extreme faith is all about.
