Beyond the obvious facial resemblances between President Obama and Pharaoh Akhenaten that extends to Michelle Obama and Queen Tiye, Akhenaten's mother, there are other parallels in philosophy, policy and conflict with traditional religious authorities. The religious resistance to their rule is based on traditional plutocratic and xenophobic convictions. President Obama who has been very generous toward the religious right is contrasted to Pharaoh Akhenaten, who removed the traditional religion's state support, received comparable challenges to their rule. Akhenaten's religious revolution was abbreviated by either death or a staged death whereby he would be resurrected as Moses. President Obama was elected by electoral and popular mandate but faces a recalcitrant majority in the House of Representatives intent on cutting social programs. Wealthy conservative billionaires fund the opposition to Obama while the religious right or so-called moral majority supplies most of the ground forces or activists. Without the full support of these believers" a their social agenda opposing contra-ceptives, abortion, same sex marriage, decriminalization of marijuana, cultural diversity, other races and ethnicity, other belief systems, etc., the government would reflect the more diverse demographic majority. This book based on numerous insights looks beyond the surface and carefully examines the numerous similarities faced by the Obama's and Akhenaten's binary rule, particularly from the religious right. This examination looks into the possibility that cosmic consciousness of the dynastic ruler, and his wife/mother is alive among the Obama's. The binary rule's perspective and policies are untraditionally supportive of women's issues regarding love, beauty, grace, transparency and peace in contrast to opponent's reliance on the patriarchy. The karmas herein that were not completed during the Akhenaten dynasty seem to be in the process of fulfillment if Obama's presidency can overcome the challenges from the right. The fulfillment and preservation of life on this planet are at stake since their common opponents are motivated by a lust for power, influence, greed, narcissism, deceit, self-aggrandizement, vanity, exclusion and opportunism at the expense of humanity, all living things and harmony with nature.
