Salt and Katie's daughter, Pepper, helps Pocahontas bring peace between the Powhatan and the English.

In 1611 Pepper, a small grey kitten is snatched from her parents and taken to live with the Great Chief Powhatan. She soon finds a place with the natural people of Virginia, but only when she sees Pocahontas does she feel truly at home.

Pepper and Pocahontas form a bond. When the Indian girl is sent to a neighboring tribe, Pepper fears they will be separated forever. The cat manages to stay with Pocahontas, only to be snatched again, this time by the English. The pair gradually adapt to their new life. Pepper is even reunited with her parents, Salt and Katie.

Pocahontas hopes to end the constant fighting between the English and her people by marrying John Rolfe. Then she agrees to represent her people in England. When they sail for England, Pepper is unaware that for her friend Pocahontas, this is a one way trip.
