Preparing good liturgy is a responsibility too big to leave to one person. Its tasks are varied and require consistent attention. Many parishes have found success with a liturgy board. The authors share the insights of parishes that have adopted this approach. This book emerges from parish experience. The ideas and worksheets presented here have been shaped by trial, evaluation, and dialogue. They allow you to create the structures and organization that lead to fruitful liturgy preparation. This step-by-step, nuts-and-bolts book helps you build and maintain a structure that serves both the parish and its liturgy. Published by Liturgy Training Publications.
