"Side Dish Recipes" Volume VI of the Mama's Legacy Series will help every cook (novice and master) complement their meals with delicious and elegant side dishes.

I am particularly excited about this volume in the series. When planning a meal, the main dish and the dessert are often fairly easy choices, but the side dishes are a little more challenging. It is easy to get in a rut and prepare the same old things time after time.

The "60 Great Recipes" in this cookbook should be helpful as you continue to face the "side dish challenge." There are quick and easy basic recipes, new ideas for old stand-bys, plus a more complicated dishes that are elegant enough for entertaining. Hopefully, you will find a number of favorites that you can offer to your family regularly.

The first section provides detailed instructions on how to cook rice and steam vegetables successfully. All the other recipes have been grouped into five categories: Pasta; Potatoes; Rice; Salads, and finally Vegetables and Fruits, which is the largest category. Most of the recipes range from very easy to easy with only a few that will take a little more time and effort to prepare.

There are side dishes for every occasion. I encourage you to try them all and find the ones that really work for you. Play with the recipes, add a little something here and there and make them your own.
