This book will answer all the financial and legal questions that can arise when caring for the elderly, including:

- How do you plan for the management of the elder's affairs should he become incompetent in the future?
- Is the proper insurance being carried or can it be restructured to reduce expenses?
- How much money can I give my elders without impacting government aid?
- What are the goals of estate tax planning?

These questions and more will be answered in the comprehensive 250 Questions format. Whether you are caring full- or part-time for an aging parent, friend, or neighbor, you'll find all the answers you need in this compact guide.
