With her gorgeous coffee-and-cream complexion, long black hair, and a winning smile, April Mitchell-Bradford has the capacity to brighten up any room she enters. Everybody who knows her loves her—except her husband, Daryl.

After years of putting on the facade of a happy marriage, April goes outside of her marriage to find the love she's never known but always felt like she deserved. When her sordid affair results in a pregnancy, Darryl wants to kill her, and her husband's girlfriend can't wait to take her place. So who's to blame when April is found murdered in cold blood?
